

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

SAM McVAY

Prior to co founding McVay Real Estate Sam worked for Deutsche Bank, London as an analyst for their European equities business. Upon returning from the UK he was Associate Director for CB Richard Ellis where he secured, led and closed in excess of $750 Million in commercial retail real estate transactions.

Most recently, Sam was based in New York and subsequently San Francisco as a Director for Kimco Realty Corporation, the worlds largest owner of neighbourhood shopping centres, where he headed a portfolio of over 400 properties running redevelopment, capital transactions and the leasing divisions. This experience provides a unique ownership perspective and ensures the property is sold in its best possible light.

QUALIFICATIONS

Sam holds a Masters In Real Estate from New York's Columbia University, a Bachelor of Commerce from Bond University and is a licensed Real Estate Agent.
